To Whom It May Concern:

The Carrollton Gage in New Orleans has reached twelve (12) feet. NOBRA has implemented the following restriction as mandated by the Board of Examiners:

“Mooring and unmooring operations at all mid-stream transfer facilities shall be restricted to daylight hours.”

This high water restriction will be in effect until the Carrollton Gage reaches twelve (12) feet and falling.

Sincerely yours,

Capt. Stephen H. Hathorn
President

Reminder on high water restrictions.

They include any facility were mooring boats are used to run the lines. If you have any questions feel free to call.
